

Wilderness Stewardship Skills Training

National Wilderness Preservation System

Three training modules are available.
Each includes two days of instruction and field practice

Wilderness Skills Intro

Wilderness Monitoring & Advanced Visitor Contact Skills

Wilderness Restoration Skills

This module is intended for participants who are new to Wilderness travel and to volunteering with the US Forest Service.

This is intended for seasoned volunteers who intend to assist with Wilderness Character monitoring or work directly with the public.

This is intended for seasoned volunteers who intend to assist with Wilderness restoration or campsite naturalization projects.

Where: Mt. Adams Institute Trout Lake, WA

When: 8:00 AM - Saturday May 30th to Sunday, May 31st (no later than 4:00 PM).

Who: Instructors for each of these modules will include seasoned and highly skilled Wilderness Rangers from Oregon and Washington.

How: To register please complete the attached application form and return it to: R6WildernessStewardship@fs.fed.us. There are a limited number of spaces available for this training (maximum 30). Please apply by April 27th for priority registration. Due to space limitations not all who apply are guaranteed a spot. Applicant participation will be confirmed by May 4th.

Lodging Provided (Saturday night) Meals Cost: $30.00.

Covers Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner (May 30th)
& Breakfast/Lunch (May 31st)

Lodging is available Friday and Sunday night for $15/night.
Meals will not be available those nights.

For more information contact
R6WildernessStewardship@fs.fed.us.

Financial support for meals cost or lodging is available for participants with financial need.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender. To file a complaint of discrimination, write: USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call (800) 795-3272 (voice), or (202) 720-6382 (TDD).

mt. adams
INSTITUTE